VOLUME XXVI—THIRTEENTH YEAR.

RICHMOND, CONTRA COSTA COUNTY, CAL.—SATURDAY, AUGUST 1, 1914

NUMBER 11.

EFFECTS OF EUROPEAN WAR ARE EVIDENT IN THIS COUNTY

BANKS CANNOT ISSUE FOREIGN TRAVELERS' CHECKS; MANY LABORERS MAY LEAVE; THREATENED CONGESTION OF GRAIN SHIPMENTS AT PORT COSTA; STANDARD OIL COMPANY IS KEPT POSTED BY BULLETINS.

"Cease issuing travelers' checks to be cashed in European countries," is, in effect, an order that was received by telegram by all the Richmond banks from the Bankers' Trust company of New York yesterday.

This is one of the consequences—reactive commercial consequences—of the threatened general war in Europe. But it is not the only one that effects business conditions locally. Another serious one is the probable congestion of grain shipments at Port Costa. Still another is the loss of common laborers from industrial work in this county.

But more closely allied to the prosperity of Richmond is the question as to what effect the war will have on the operation of the Standard Oil refinery in this city. While local officers claim that they have not received the slightest of in-

JOHN MITCHELL
Candidate for Election to State Board of Equalization

JOHN MITCHELL STATE EQUALIZER FOR RE-ELECTION

John Mitchell, second district member of the State Board of Equalization for the past four years, two years of which he has been the chairman, and candidate for re-election, was in Richmond yesterday in the interest of his candidacy. Mitchell is prominently known all over the state, but particularly so in Alameda and Contra Costa county, as he was for twelve years a member of the Alameda board of supervisors. Eight of the twelve years he was a supervisor he was chairman of the board.

While an Alameda supervisor he worked diligently for the building of a boulevard between Oakland and Hayward, finally being successful in getting it constructed. Mitchell's friends claim that he has the endorsement of business men of the state, both in the south and in the north.

One of Mitchell's campaign slogans is: "Technical knowledge alone is dangerous unless it is backed by experience."

Returns From South.

Miss Edith Delp returned home last evening from a two weeks' trip spent at Los Angeles.

Pablo promises to be a very enjoyable affair and from the large number of tickets that have already been sold should make the affair a record breaker.

At a late hour in the evening supper will be served by the ladies of the San Pablo Catholic church.

Acting in accordance with the authorization given by the state railroad commission, the Pacific Gas and Electric company has extended to its consumers, the offer, first made to its stockholders, subsequently to its employees, to become purchasers of first preferred stock of a new issue at the minimum price.

The preferred stock issue is for a total of $12,500,000. The terms and conditions for the sale of this issue are as follows:

They call for a minimum price of $2.50 per $100 share, payable, at the purchaser's option, either in full or in the following installments: $5.00 upon application, $20.00 on or before each of the following dates: October 1, 1914, January 1st, April 1st, July 1st, and October 1st, 1915.

This issue, with the terms and conditions specified, has received the unqualified approval of the Railroad Commission, and though directly from the company, at the minimum price authorized by the Railroad Commission. This stock may be paid for in full or in installments, in all respects upon the

JUDGE PASSES SENTENCE ON MAN WHO FLEES

"You can have your choice of 60 days in the county jail or 60 seconds in which to leave town," stated Judge Lindsey, as he peered over the top of his spectacles at Owen Reilly, arrested last evening for acting in a disorderly manner.

"Well what do you wish to do?" continued the Judge, but Reilly had disappeared.

CONTRACT AWARDED FOR HOSPITAL REPAIRS

Miss Jeannie Craven of the Craven hospital has awarded the contract for repairing to the hospital to J. W. Riddick which will amount to $500.

The plan is to move the building back from the street several hundred feet and to build a new front to the hospital which will add about fifteen more rooms.

POOL ROOM MAN IN REALTY GAME

H. J. Hoffman, formerly proprietor of the Standard Billiard and Pool parlors, located at the corner of Eighth street and Macdonald avenue has accepted a position with the realty firm of Gignoux Bros. Hoffman, while in the pool room business, made a large number of friends who will be glad to learn of his having branched out into the new profession.

STREET PARADE TOO MUCH FOR NERVES OF EXPRESS WAGON HORSE

Cowboys, cowgirls, painted Indians, two bands and a steam calliope were too much for the nerves of a Richmond horse, broken to speeding automobiles and clamoring street cars. The horse, hitched to an Old's express wagon was tied near the corner of First and Macdonald when the Wild West parade approached on its return to the big "top."

The stolid old express horse took one look at the terrifying and strange collection of beasts and humans; then with a frightened tug at its fastenings it broke loose and dashed up Macdonald avenue directly into the crowds gathered to see the street procession. The crowd evaded the frenzied animal, but it was not stopped until it reached Ninth street.

(N. B.—That this is not a press story is evidenced by the fact that the runaway horse was caught by a deliveryman and not by the lasso of one of the Irwin cowboys.)

CONNECTIONS MUST BE MADE FREE OF ALL CHARGES

Almost definite assurance was given out today that the McEwen Water Company will connect the premises of T. B. Jackson on 12th street, with the water mains without the question being carried before the Railroad commission. This is the case in which complaint was made to the city council last Monday evening that the water company was trying to force Jackson to pay $10 for having his home connected with the mains.

The councilmen referred the matter to City Attorney Hall and Chief of Police Walker. Since then they have been investigating the matter. The company claimed that recently Jackson asked to have his house disconnected and then later came and asked for the water service again. The $10 fee they maintain was for the payment for the expense to which they had been put by making the disconnection.

It is said that it was necessary to use only about three feet of pipe to connect the Jackson premises with the water mains. However, it was stated today that the matter would be settled without recourse to placing the controversy before the Railroad Commission as was first proposed.

Local attorneys think that the change of front of the water company may have been due to the decision given yesterday by the Railroad Commission in an almost identical case in Pasadena. The commission decided that the Pasadena Water company shall cease to charge $15 for each small meter connection and $25 for larger meters, and shall make all connections without charge to the consumer. The company allowed to charge the cost to capital account.

CURTIN SPEAKS AT THREE MEETINGS

At noon today Senator J. B. Curtin, candidate for election as governor, addressed a large number of workmen at the Standard Oil refinery and this afternoon was the speaker before a gathering of women in the Lincoln school auditorium. This evening he is to be the guest of honor at a smoker which will be held in the banquet room of the Elks' club. The public is invited to the smoker. Besides the Senator, a number of well known Richmond men will make addresses, among whom is Mayor Garrard who is to welcome the visitor.

SANTA FE IS WILLING TO ARBITRATE

EMPLOYEES RECEIVE COMMUNICATION FROM PRESIDENT RIPLEY TODAY

That the Santa Fe railroad company is willing to submit to a full arbitration upon all questions involved in the threatened railroad strike of engine men on railroads west of Chicago is the definite statement contained in a communication that was received by employees of this railroad in this city this afternoon.

The communication was dated, "Chicago, July 28th." It was given to the press with the request that it be published in full. The communication was signed by E. P. Ripley, president of the Santa Fe railroad company. It reads as follows:

"To all Employees,
"The Atchinson, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway Company,

"A statement to the public by the railroad engine men has been widely circulated in the Western territory as a justification for the action of the engine men in demanding more pay and shorter hours and refusing to arbitrate the questions involved. The statement is long and involved, and for the most part is either wholly untrue or states but a portion of the truth. The statement has been sent broadcast with request to have it printed in the newspapers, in whole or in part.

"In order that the full situation may be known to the public, and especially to our own employees, I desire to state the following facts:
"1. The railroads propose a full arbitration of all questions involved. The engine men offer to arbitrate only the question of their own demands.

"2. In order that it might be apparent to all that no attempt is being made to reduce wages, the railroads gave the engine men assur-

GRASS FIRE ALL BUT SETS FIRE TO HOUSE OF GASOLINE

Fire company No. 2 was called to 120 Macdonald avenue at a late hour this afternoon to extinguish a grass fire which had been started by Mrs. Mary Loughlin.

Fanned by a stiff breeze the fire was gaining considerable velocity when the firemen arrived and took the combined efforts of several streams of water to finally extinguish the blaze.

When the firemen arrived on the scene the flames were licking the sides of an out-house, where 150 gallons of gasoline were stored which, had it exploded, would have consumed the entire block.

COLORADO MAN ACQUITTED OF BEATING HIS WHITE WIFE

FELIX FLINT OF STEGE IS ACQUITTED BY JURY IN JUSTICE OF PEACE HUBER'S COURTROOM YESTERDAY OF BEATING CHARGE.

Felix Flint who was charged by his wife with attempting an assault with a deadly weapon, was acquitted of the charge in the court of Justice of the Peace Huber yesterday afternoon by a jury on the first ballot.

Flint, several days ago, upon returning from work became aggravated at some action of his wife, and, following a succession of remarks, started after her with a knife, saying that if he caught her that she would be killed. Mrs. Flint ran into a neighbor's house where she remained until Constable Davis arrived and took charge of her husband.

Attorney Johnston represented Flint in the suit while District Attorney A. B. McKennie prosecuted for the state.

A feature of considerable importance leaked out in the case that some dissension has been going on in the family ever since the marriage of Flint, who is colored, to his wife, a white woman.

The couple made quite a contrast in the courtroom, Flint being very dark, while his wife was very fair. Just where the couple were married they would not state.

YOUNG MOTHER BURIED

Hundreds of friends attended the sad rites for Mrs. Rose L. Call, the young wife and mother who was called by death Wednesday night, which were held at the Curry chapel yesterday afternoon. Reverend J. K. Kelly, pastor of the First Methodist church delivered the funeral eulogy.

The pall-bearers were J. L. Parks, Pressley Adams, Dorian Bradley, Berwyn Bradley, William McLaughlin and William King. Mrs. Call was formerly Miss Rose Blount.

Burial was in Sunset View cemetery.

Friends of Mrs. Spease were entertained at a dainty luncheon at her home on Fifth street yesterday afternoon. Covers were laid for Mrs. Harry Lunceford, Mrs. W. G. Braine, Mrs. Frank Adams, Mrs. D. L. Coleman, Mrs. E. T. Kelly, Mrs. W. J. Caesar and Mrs. James Nabett.

"To Observations Which Ourselves We Make, We Grow More Partial, for the Observer's Sake."

A STRADDLE VOTE IS A VOTE WASTED

Those candidates pussy footing around the county and state, as the candidates of half a dozen parties are liable to wake up after August 25th, with such a jolt that they will not forget the rebuke administered to them, for a long time. A candidate guilty of such acts, is simply attempting to commit a fraud on the voting public; there is nothing else to it.

The following communication clearly fits the situation. In other words where the primary law provides for party lines, a candidate who tries to represent three different parties, is running a bunko game. The communication is of vital interest, and everyone should read it, and when he goes to vote, he should swat those fellows trying to be something their affidavit of registration, shows they are not.

The communication reads as follows:

"I am immensely interested in that curious display of logic by which certain candidates justify their appeals for nomination at the hands of two, three and even four different political parties. The only glimmering of intelligence in the argument lies in an appeal for the elimination of party lines in the state elections, and this is only a glimmer, as the argument has no application whatever to the case in hand.

"In the first place, the parties are not yet eliminated, and they cannot be eliminated by the fatuous process of one candidate running for several nominations. It is open to argument whether or not parties should be eliminated in elections, as those elections constitute the only available national political barometers. Still that point need not be discussed here, as it has nothing to do with this case.

"The fact is, we still have the political parties. The newest fact is that we have an amazing primary law which allows any aspiring candidate to contend for as many different nominations as there happens to be political parties. It is one of the jokes of the political world that the candidate pretends that he is pushed forward by his admiring friends. The truth is that not one candidate in a hundred is nominated except upon his own initiative, either avowed or concealed. This applies from president down to constable. It is fair to assume that these multi-colored candidates are there because they want to be and not because the honor was thrust upon them.

"The difference between this case and a non-partisan nomination, is that the latter springs from the voters and the former springs from the candidate. The candidate who seeks a nomination from each of two opposite parties, which are trying to destroy each other, surely requires no tonic for his nerve.

Another difference is that, in a non-partisan primary, every voter has an equal chance to choose among all the candidates for each office to be filled. In this case the party voter can only vote in the party with which he is registered. He has no freedom of choice beyond that. If his best friend is a candidate in some other party he cannot possibly vote for him. Thus we have a strictly partisan primary by law. Yet the same law which binds the voter to a partisan choice, allows a nifty candidate to run amuck among the tickets. The primary is an enlarged nominating convention in which every party voter may be a delegate to help choose his party candidates. The same political ethics apply to a primary as would apply to an honestly conducted party convention. A Blaine Republican convention would not be likely to nominate a Cleveland Democrat, unless it were hypnotized by some kind of hocus-poens which may be a product of these latter days.

"If any voter feels inclined to vote for one of these bipartisan candidates not of his own party, he should only do so in the full knowledge that he is probably throwing his vote away and cutting himself off from exercising his proper privilege of choice as between the candidates of his own party. Such a vote has no weight whatever in deciding whether or not that candidate should appear on the November ballot. That question is settled exclusively by the voters of the candidate's own party. Such a vote means nothing more nor less than that the voter desires his own party to have no candidate on the ballot and it might easily happen that this would be the case and the candidate himself fail also to get on the ballot.

"Attorney General Webb has decided that a candidate can get on the November ballot through his own party alone. If he fails in that, he loses all other endorsements he may have gained. If he succeeds, he is just as effectually on the ballot as though he had a dozen endorsements, and no more so. Every voter who desires to vote for him will then have free and full opportunity to do so as well with one nomination as with a dozen. On the other hand his mixing in other party fights may divert and waste votes enough to defeat the real will of the party or even so entirely disfranchise it in the November election.

"Take an illustration. Suppose that Mumbo, a Progressive, is running also for the Democratic nomination against Jumbo, the straight Democratic. Suppose that Mumbo beats Jumbo in the Democratic camp, but in his own party he is himself beaten by Jinx. What is the result? Why the result is that both Mumbo and Jumbo are out of it. The Democrats have no candidate at all, and Jinx alone gets on the ballot, although possibly not a single Democrat would vote for him to save him from being hung. Is such a possible vote fair?

"Then again, this voter does not do his friend any great favor, except the very selfish one of cutting down legitimate and proper competition. His vote counts only to help keep somebody off the ballot without counting to help put anybody on. For similar tactics the Standard Oil company is held up to public execration. Let us, at least, not cloak this absurd plan with a mantle of assumed virtue.

"No one need be alarmed over the prospect of any political party nominating a candidate pledged to burn its own political house down. It is only the unthinking voter who needs to be cautioned against wasting his vote through praiseworthy motives of personal friendships. A little thought shows conclusively that it is impossible to cast an effective non-partisan vote in a partisan primary. Such a vote is merely wast ed."

A GOOD MAN GONE

Richmond lost one of its oldest settlers this week, in the person of John Nicholl, Sr., and it was foggy and cloudy that day, because the sunshine of a good man's life had gone out forever. He was 91 years of age and strong mentally up to the very last. He came here as a farmer before there was any Richmond, and the old Nicholl homestead which Macdonald avenue cuts in twain was the nucleus of a fortune now estimated at three or four millions of dollars. The news columns of this paper has contained the accounts of his death and funeral, and all that remains for this department to say is that John Nicholl the elder was a good man, and that if there is a good and great place of future life and happiness, he is there right now. We have his photograph, taken recently, and it shows a face of strong character and will power. He was a fine old man, and may God gather him into the fold until the rest of us get there and greet him again as of yore. To the junior John Nicholl, and all the family, we extend earnest expression of share in their sorrow. We know the John that is yet left among us, and like him well, and don't care who knows it, and those who knew the elder John say he was even a bigger and better man than the son—and that is saying a great deal.

California is going to market something like 50,000 tons of walnuts this year, which will furnish most everybody with a nut to crack. It is wonderful how many goodies grow in California. When most people think California they think oranges, but oranges are only a small part of California's production. Walnuts are an important crop, and the walnut groves are very beautiful to gaze upon. With a rose-covered bungalow in the center of a fine California walnut grove, a windmill hoisting water, a square of green lawn in front, chicken coop and garage at the back, and a California girl training vines on a latticed porch—that is a picture for gods and man.

WITNESS AFTER WITNESS IN RICHMOND

Such Evidence Our Readers Cannot Dispute.

As we take up the Record-Herald week by week, we are struck by the hearty, unmistakable way in which witness after witness speaks out as Mrs. Gorman does here. If these people were strangers living miles away, we might take little notice of them. But they are not. They are our neighbors, living among us. Their word is too easily proven to admit of any doubt. They speak out in the hope that their experience may be a guide to others.

"It was about two years ago that my kidneys were weak and I felt certain that all the pain I was suffering was caused by them," says Mrs. G. Gorman, of 1804 Nevla Ave., Richmond. "I had backache and every cold I caught made me feel worse. Two or three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills rid me of these ailments and strengthened my whole system."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Gorman had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

THE WEEK'S RODEO OF LIVE EVENTS

DISTINGUISHED GUESTS.

There have been lots of things doing in and around Richmond this week, and more are scheduled for the immediate future. Among the most important of the latter is the visit of the Congressional Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors, the members of which will arrive at San Francisco from Washington, D. C., on the 14th inst. Their stay in this bay region will probably extend to the 17th or 18th, during which time they will visit the various section having harbor and waterfront improvements, including Richmond, Oakland and Sacramento. The Board's party will consist of Colonel William M. Black, Colonel Frederick Abbott, Lieut. Colonel H. C. Newcomer, Colonel Lansing H. Beach, Colonel Harry Taylor, Lieut. Col. E. E. Winslow, Major Chas. W. Kutz, and their secretary, Mr. Weber. Colonel Thos. H. Rees will accompany the Board on the itinerary. H. W. Wernse and other members of the Richmond Industrial Commission, together with the Richmond City Council, are arranging a fitting reception for these distinguished gentlemen upon their arrival and stay in this city. They will inspect the harbors and deep waters here and report upon the same to the heads of departments at Washington.

We had the pleasure of meeting all these gentlemen in Washington a year ago, and happen to know that they are especially interested in the harbor development of Richmond, for the reason that the same has quite an important bearing upon the plans of the United States government relative to harbors, dry docks and naval bases on San Francisco bay. After hearing the views of these men upon this important subject, and noting its bearing with and upon the similar projects of the federal government, we have no fears whatever of anything happening to the appropriation already granted by the House and now up in the Senate for conformation. It is quite likely that many of the "pork barrel" items in the rivers and harbors appropriation bill will be either cut out or pruned down, as will be entirely proper, for "pork barrel" is about all there is to some of the items, but there is no danger to the Richmond project. There was great favorable pressure brought to bear on this matter in Washington, through the instrumentality of some very big and powerful men. Among these were former Secretary of the Navy Victor Metcalf, because Sheriff R. R. Veale, and a similar influence because of Supervisor Warren McBryde. The inside history of these matters we will set forth later when we have time and space. Suffice it for the present that the Richmond appropriation will be safe, and that we must all give the Congressional gentlemen who are to be our guests in a couple of weeks a real old fashioned western welcome.

BUSINESS IS GOOD.

Nearly all the members of the Industrial Commission who have residential tracts in Richmond have informed this writer this week that business is picking up wonderfully during the past few weeks and is now about up to normal. Hays, Hopping & Burg report that last Sunday was the biggest day for good business with them for six months, and others speak in about the same cheerful tone. There have been a goodly number of high priced lots sold in Richmond this week, as shown by the transfer records, and many not so shown as yet. Among the local dealers Mr. R. W. Byrn has made a good showing this week, his sales totaling five, with $34,200 changing hands.

NEW EXHIBITS.

Among the new exhibits at the Richmond-Contra Costa Exhibition in San Francisco this week is a large and handsome model of a ferry boat, constructed at the shipyards of Johnson & Lanteri at Pittsburg, also a large framed picture of their dredger, "Armour," built this year, and pictures of their plant and a 70-passenger boat now on their marine ways. All of this shows the bigness of Contra Costa county's shipbuilding industry. Manager Biggs of the S. F. Quarries Co. is arranging a display of the crushed rock industry of Richmond, with fine large picture of the company's plant here. Cowell Cement company is to do likewise, also R. N. Burgess Realty Co., Oakland & Antioch Railroad, S. P. and Santa Fe. The show is looming up pretty nice now and attracts no end of attention and favorable comment.

LITTLE BOOST ITEMS.

The editor of this paper is putting out a new monthly magazine, called "The Thinkograph," the first number of which is to appear tomorrow. He has contracted with the Western News Company to handle it on all news stands, trains, etc., between the Pacific coast and Chicago, and several pages of it each issue will be devoted to information about Richmond. The first subscriber to the magazine was Mr. Claud Gignoux, of the Richmond Development Company. He hasn't seen the magazine yet, and therefore may get stung, for we have his dollar, but we are going to try real hard to see that he gets his money's worth, and then some, as well as all other readers.

H. C. Cutting is off in the wilds of the Nevada mountains somewhere this week, hunting deer, and we are getting our mouth in the right pucker for venison. Those who know, however, state that he couldn't hit an elephant, unless it was in a circus and he sneaked up behind it with a club.

It is fun to see Senator Jim Owens "quit politics." He gave it out raw that never again would he recognize a politic if he met it in the road, and now here he is out working with his coat off and both his sleeves rolled up above his elbows, trying to help those who helped him during his late unpleasantness. Senator Jim couldn't go back on a friend if he tried.

Work is being rushed right along with the harbor and tunnel projects, highway, etc., and before long the city will have some wharfs that ships can dock at, and the cars will be whirling through the municipal tunnel, while automobiles and passengers will be heading in that direction to take the ferry for San Francisco and other bay ports. George Wall did not have any new city hall stories to give out this week, but said he intended to build one or bust a pucker string. Last time we saw him he and Wernse and Major McLaughlin were writing telegrams with both hands and both feet to the Congressmen and Senators at Washington, telling them that if they didn't vote hard for that appropriation bill what would happen to them when they showed up in California again would be a plenty.

The friends of Major McLaughlin are watching him to see that he does not follow off that Wild West Show. Now that he has that new and fiery steed he feels that he can outstride any cowboy this side of Mexico, or the other side, either.

We intended to take up the question of knockers in this department in this issue, but find that the subject is one that will justify a long editorial, and so will reserve it for next week, at which time it will be handled without gloves. If you happen to belong to the tribe known as "Knockers," you had better be playing safe, for we intend to show up some of them in their true and unvarnished light. If there is any one miserable, low-down, imp of darkness more than another that deserves being pounded down into the bowels of the earth head first with a pile-driver, it is the knocker. Ex-Governor Gillette visited Richmond a few days ago, looking over some property interests here, and expressed surprise at the rapid growth and development of the city. It is men like him that we all like to see get interested in Richmond, for men like him do things.

Ben Schapiro and Henry Johnston are so busy with that new tract adjoining the city on the southwest that they hardly get time to go to lunch any more. In fact we caught the genial Ben yesterday in the act of eating a handful of fruit with one hand and writing a check for street improvements with the other.

Fay has hooked up with Kelly and moved his offices into the Kelly block, where they are selling east hill terrace property. Auty Duggan says he has to hustle harder than ever now, and sell lots of lots, being a man of family. Bert Farris is also doing a lot of the same kind of rustling. Too bad those chaps were not evangelists—they could have saved lots of souls. Ed Burg has out a new booklet on how and where to buy real estate and why, which is very interesting. We intend to review it soon as it is full of facts as hash is of miscellaneous meat.

Herbert Brown is off on a vacation and Will Brown is holding down the fort. We tried to interview him today to get a factory story, but couldn't get through the crowd.

Mr. Wm. Wenham, of the well known firm of Wenham & Paul, of Oakland, was a Richmond visitor yesterday. This firm is handling the Marine View Terrace, on and around the Nicholl hills of the west side, and are doing a big business. They have a strong selling force out everywhere all the time. And in speaking of marine views, there is none in the world finer than from their tract.

The new school house will soon be under way at Main and 23rd streets, which is badly needed out there. It is to cost about $40,000.

In about another month ships will be poking their noses through the Panama Canal, and then look out for a big upward jump in Richmond realty. Things ought to hum around here this fall, and all signs point to the fact that they will.

MASONS ENTERTAIN AT BIG BANQUET

Richmond Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, entertained the members of Oakland and Berkeley chapters at a get-together meeting held in Pythian hall last evening.

Following a short program which took up the early part of the evening a banquet was held at which all had an enjoyable time.

Among those present at the affair were W. F. Pettill, D. Homer Woodruff and J. H. Demon. Among the speakers at the banquet were: Superior Judge R. H. Latimer, O. K. Smith, County Treasurer J. Rio Baker and W. A. Hale, all of Martinez; Harry Ellis, E. H. Harlow and Dr. Woodruff, all of this city, and many of the Berkeley visitors.

ASK POLICE TO LOOK FOR BODY OF BROTHER

William George of 3612 East Sixteenth street, Oakland, has asked the police of the bay region to look out for the body of his brother, John A. George, who was drowned Tuesday evening at Fort Costa, where he tripped while fastening a launch on a barge at that port. George could not swim, and when he went overboard went down immediately, failing to come to the surface. He was 6 feet in height, and weighed 200 pounds, was dark of complexion, smooth shaven, with dark gray trousers and gray shirt. George was a single man, 28 years of age.

AGED PEDDLER PAYS JUSTICE IN ADVANCE

Believing that Alfred Nelson, aged peddler of Albany, had been sufficiently punished by a 55 days' imprisonment in jail awaiting his hearing on the charge of cruelty perpetrated by his wife, Judge Robert Edgar dismissed the case when it was called yesterday. Nelson was arrested in Albany on the charge of battery. Judge Paul permitted him his freedom on condition that he leave the state. Later he was apprehended on suspicion of having some knowledge of the origin of the fire which nearly destroyed the little shack in which he lived.

EFFECTS OF WAR

Instructions regarding shipments, as far as related to the war scare in Europe, it is known that they are receiving war bulletins far in advance of the newspapers and that no company on the Pacific coast is being kept closer posted on conditions in Europe than is the local oil company. John D. Rockefeller's interest in the company and his means of securing information from European agents is the explanation of the way the company receives its advance news.

While the European war has stopped no shipments from this port, the steamer Kiowa, owned by the Standard Oil company and flying a German flag, which sailed yesterday morning from Algiers, turned around when off Sandy Hook and headed for New York. At the office of the Standard Oil company in New York information concerning the Kiowa was refused. But it was stated that the company was considering recalling all of its ships in foreign waters.

Exchange Rate "Knocked to Pieces" Instructions to Richmond banks to discontinue the issuance of travelers' checks for foreign use is explained here by the bank managers with the statement that the "rate of exchange is all knocked to pieces." One banker pointed out that where the usual rate of exchange on the British pound is $4.87 it is now over $5.00. The local bankers say there is no evidence shown locally of the withdrawal of gold to Europe from America.

The Wells Fargo agents were others who received instructions not to issue travelers' checks for foreign use. Their instructions, however, were modified with the words: "Do not issue travelers' checks for large amounts." The Wells Fargo people will continue to issue drafts for small amounts, arranging from five to ten dollars, but they will not take the risk of loss on large sums.

Another possible result of the European war is the withdrawal of a great many laborers, Servians, Austrians, Italians and Germans, from industrial work in this county who may be called home as reservists to fight for their respective countries. So far, though, there have been but a small number quit there work to go to San Francisco to report at the various consulates.

The most serious consequence of the war in this country is the congestion of barley shipments from Port Costa.

As a result of the European condition, shipments across the Atlantic from this and other Pacific coast ports is practically at a standstill. An atmosphere of uncertainty prevails throughout steamship circles and no effort will be made to dispatch any considerable cargoes until the probable extent of the war becomes known.

As a result of this condition the movements of California's largest barley crop for twenty years is being tied up, and the owners and shippers of the 275,000 tons involved are at a loss to know what action to take.

The marine underwriters refuse all war risks and will continue

A total of about 55 vessels have been chartered to carry this barley from Port Costa. In the case of German ships under charter it is expected that these may not be utilized by the charters in the event of that country being drawn into the conflict. The war risk, it is said, will be beyond the means of the grain buyers.

The charters will be permitted to relinquish any vessel they desire if the country owning the ship is at war. One of the provisions of every charter provides for this.

The last rate quoted on California products shipped in German bottoms is 10 cents. This is deemed exorbitant and is expected to result in a transfer of these products to British vessels.

Without exception the shipping firms announced yesterday that they would delay the dispatching of vessels until instructions had been received from Europe.

The matter of risk is entirely up to the buyers for as soon as a vessel is loaded here and ready for sea, the shipper draws against the buyer's account. The loss in case of seizure will be borne by the buyer.

Lack of War Insurance Cause.

Though for the moment local shipping conditions as regards the barley crop are "chaotic"—to quote Emil Waterman, a heavy dealer in California products—this condition is attributable solely to the fact that the British Lloyds' and other marine insurance companies have

MANY CHANGES BEING MADE AT CAPWELL'S STORE

You cannot gauge a race with but one runner but with two or more a winner can be readily picked.

This applies directly to the thriving business house of Capwell's, in Oakland, which, though having moved into what was at first thought to be spacious headquarters is already showing signs of cramming many sections of that large Oakland business house and to such an extent that many enlargements have been necessitated.

In order to accommodate the vast throng of shoppers which daily file in and out of the building, the firm has been forced to add several more elevators, to its dozen and more which it already has.

Many partitions which were put in for fancy effects when the building was first taken over by the firm are being torn out owing to the rapidly increasing business which demands more display room for the enormous quantity of stock which is on hand at the present time.

not as yet adjusted their affairs upon a basis that warrants them in underwriting war risks. Without an insurance policy covering such risks, drafts on European grain firms for barley purchased are for the moment, undiscountable. Bankers yesterday were agreed that this situation is purely temporary—a mere matter of days. It goes without saying that the underwriting of war insurance is an amazing remunerative business and the developments of the coming week may be counted upon so to clarify the situation that the agencies which are eager to write policies on barley in transit may do so understandingly. Then barley will begin to soar. The war scare has already caused an advance in the quoted price of about half a cent per hundred weight.

SEEKS TO SELL STOCK

same terms and conditions heretofore offered to the company's own stockholders and employees. Consumers may subscribe at any time prior to August 15th, 1914.

This offer is being circulated among thirty counties of north-central California over which the Pacific Gas and Electric Company's operations extend. In all this territory arrangements have been made with local banks to take care of subscriptions which applicants for stock may prefer to deposit there rather than take the trouble of forwarding to headquarters.

The first offer was made only a month ago and applications are coming in to the company's headquarters from stockholders all over the world, while already forty per cent of the company's permanent staff have signified their desire to become stockholders to the extent of upwards of $500,000. And now, the Pacific Gas and Electric company announces an offer which has for its purpose the making of "Pacific Service" not only a home industry, but, as far as possible, a home-owned industry. Something like 250,000 circulars addressed to as many customers of the company for gas, electricity or water, have been sent out, bearing the signature of Vice President and General Manager John A. Britton and bearing this announcement in part:

"A number of our consumers have requested the privilege of joining in this subscription, thus obtaining an opportunity of sharing in the profits of the company and possessing a voice in its management. Believing it to be to the advantage of the company as well as its consumers that the stock should be distributed to as large an extent as possible among the representative citizens of California who are our consumers, the directors of the company hereby extend an invitation to all consumers to purchase a portion of the above First Preferred stock."

The principal features of this first preferred stock may be summarized as follows:

SURPRISE TENDERED MRS. W. R. WILLIAMS

Mrs. W. R. Williams, living near Stege, was surprised by a number of her friends last Thursday evening. The surprise party was given as a celebration of Mrs. Williams' birthday. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Norton, Mr. and Mrs. Cobb, Mr. and Mrs. Broberg, Mr. and Mrs. Duchaine, Mr. and Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Luke and son, Fred; Misses Lucille Duchaine, Nellie Luke, Blanche Gibbs, Lillie Mocroft, Esther Pearson, Marguerite Williams, Mrs. Mocroft, Mrs. Pearson, Messrs F. Pearson, V. Naveller, T. Mocroft, S. Williams, C. Nissen, Mr. and Mrs. Shaw and daughter, Lois; Mr. and Mrs. Bray, Mr. and Mrs. Seelye.

"It is tax free in California and the income derived from it is not subject to the normal Federal Income Tax."

"It is issued as fully paid with the express covenant of the company that it shall not be subject to assessment for any purpose."

"The stock, after fully paid certificates are issued, carries a dividend rate of $6.00 per share per annum, payable at the rate of $1.50 per share every three months by check mailed to the stockholder without any action on the stockholder's part, except to keep the Secretary of the company informed of any change of address. At the price of $22.50 for each $100 share these dividends represent a net return of 7.27 per annum on the amount invested."

"Dividends are preferred and cumulative, that is, they must be fully paid for the entire period during which the stock has been issued before any dividends can be paid on any other stock of the company."

"It is an entirely new issue now offered for the first time and containing attractive features not heretofore incorporated in other stock issues of the company."

U. S. OFFERS CALIFORNIA PULP TIMBER FOR SALE

Timber on a tract of 7,400 acres in the Plumas and Tahoe National Forests, involving 600,000 cords of California red fir and 50,000 cords of white fir suitable for the manufacture of paper pulp, is being offered for sale by the United States District Forester at San Francisco. Additional white fir to the amount of 5,000 cords per annum may be obtained from private operators along the line of the Western Pacific railroad, and a still further supply by the purchase of private lands adjoining the sale area. The red fir trees average from 26 to 30 inches in diameter and run about 5 logs to the tree. The maximum stand is about 80 m feet per acre.

The operation of this timber will involve the construction of a pulp and paper plant, the best site for which is Blairden on the Western Pacific railroad. There is plenty of room at this point for settling basins and yards, and sufficient water could be secured from the Middle Fork of the Feather River for use in connection with the plant but not for power.

A hydro-electric power site is available on Government land on the Middle Fork of the Feather River 25 miles above Blairden. 3500 horsepower can be developed, requiring the construction of 11.2 miles of conduit and 25 miles of transmission line. If the power thus generated is used exclusively in the manufacture of National Forest timber and only by the permittees who are themselves the purchasers of the timber to be manufactured, no charge will be made by the Government in connection with this development. The power plant and transmission line will cost in the neighborhood of $281,800.

The most suitable pulp mill should have a daily capacity of 30 tons sulphite fibre and 30 tons mechanical fibre. The paper mill should be of 50 tons daily capacity. The pulp and paper plant will require about 100 cords of wood a day and its annual output should be about 15,000 tons of paper. Its estimated cost is $730,000.

Logging will require an outlay of $207,000. For transportation of the logs to the pulp mill a standard gage railroad 17 miles in length will be required, with about seven miles of spur track. Such a railroad would also serve as a means of transportation for about 250 million feet of privately owned timber upon this drainage.

Transportation of the wood from the sale areas to the railroad spurs will be by chutes, the trees being yarded to the top of the chute, there backed into 16-foot logs, and thence hauled down the chutes by donkeys. Nine such chutes will be required, having a total length of 11 miles.

The investment required to handle this proposition is estimated at $1,218,800.

CANDIDATES WILL BE FLOOR MANAGERS

Announcement was made yesterday by members of the Richmond Club that many of the assistant floor managers at the coming Candidates' ball would probably be selected from many of the candidates which are in the county electoral fight.

The committee in charge of the ball is composed of Mrs. L. C. Stout, chairman; Mrs. W. H. Luncford; Mrs. W. L. Braine, and Mrs. W. W. Felch. Music will be furnished by McRacken's orchestra.

COWBOYS THRILL WATCHING THROUGH AT CIRCUS TENT

The Irwin Brothers' Real Wild West show from Cheyenne opened this afternoon at the circus grounds with an excellent attendance to witness the daring riding and thrilling stunts of the cowboys and the cowgirls.

The show is advertised as an exact replica of the annual Frontier Days' shows of Cheyenne—and, if the exhibition this afternoon offers any criterion—in the phrasing of Samuel G. Blythe, "it is a humdinger." Although the program is undoubtedly arranged and everything is supposed to go without a hitch, the performance is so interspersed with thrills, that one is compelled to believe that it is the real wild west without the stage setting. There is rough riding galore, steers herded and roped in the big arena, trick riding that will make even the old timers from off the range, rub their eyes; the attack on the old Deadwood stage coach and the '49 wagon train; bull-dogging steers; fancy roping that is marvelous; in fact the entire program is one of the best ever seen in Richmond.

The riding of Floyd Irwin, son of C. B. Irwin, principal owner and manager of the show, is one of the thrills of the show. He actually loops the neck of a horse at full gallop, from the saddle.

The singing clown, attired as a Hebrew and who scored such a hit in San Francisco, is one of the features of the show.

Bee-Ho-Gray, the trick roper and who it is claimed won the $3,000 prize at Winnipeg, Canada, last year, seems to make a lasso do almost everything but talk. The full performance will be repeated this evening.

SANTA FE WILLING TO ARBITRATE

ance that if the arbitration is unsatisfactory, the men will have the option of rejecting it and continuing to work on the existing schedule.

"3. It seems hardly necessary to state that any claims that the Santa Fe has not or will not live up to any agreement it makes and ridicules. You all know that it does and that it will.

"4. We have before us the question of being able to live or perish. We cannot operate this railroad except with loyal and faithful employees. We will, of course, stand by the result of any arbitration, but to submit to arbitration which ignores all justice and provides only that the claims of one side be adjudicated is absurd. You know the record of the company for square dealing and you may rest assured that it is not being departed from in this case.

"E. P. RIPLEY,

"President Santa Fe R. R. Co."

MANY FLOCK TO KOZY KOVE TODAY

A large number of people took advantage of the heat wave here today to flock to the cool spots afforded at Kozy Kove where they enjoyed swimming and dancing in the open air pavilion at that place.

Considerable agitation has been caused by a rumor that the music being rendered at Kozy Kove was not unionized but this is stoutly denied by Manager Frank Agar who claims that he would have nothing but union music inside of his grounds.

The Hyde Hodges company has commenced the work of piling along the Martinez wharf for the platform 100x150 feet for the Standard Oil supply station. The same firm will also construct the float off the end of the wharf where the river craft will be accommodated with gasoline supplies.

Stopping a want ad in the Record-Herald, to save money, is like stopping a clock to save time.

STORY No. 12 Second Series

My story today is about the eye. The eye is one of the most useful and at the same time one of the most abused organs of the body.

In order that a person may be able to have good vision, it is necessary that an image of the object looked at shall be formed on the interior of the eyeball. When a person looks at any object that is at a distance, the normal eye is in its natural condition of rest, but when a person looks at any near object, such as reading a book, a set of muscles in the eyeball are brought into use which changes the shape of the interior of the eyeball and this is called accommodation. If the accommodation is not perfect, the result is that vision is poor, and the muscles of accommodation are put on a strain and serious injury is apt to result. The principal causes of this inability to properly focus the eye are hyperopia, or far-sightedness, myopia or short-sightedness and astigmatism which is an irregularity in the shape of the eye. The remedy for these conditions is a properly fitted pair of glasses. I have not the necessary space in this story to give a full explanation of these conditions, but, if your vision is poor, if any prolonged attempt to use the eyes causes them to water, or to feel as if there was sand in them, or causes pain in the eyes, temples or forehead, there are conditions there which should have immediate attention. Now that the city schools are about to open, see that your children do not suffer from any of the symptoms that I have mentioned, but have them attended to before serious injury results.

I am doing all kinds of eye work, and fitting glasses for those who need them, at reasonable prices. Those for whom I have done that kind of work are well satisfied and are recommending their friends to come and see me. Fees for medical cases, $1.00 to $1.50 cash.
